ton original

Chanson de Paul Mc Cartney, sortie en 1966.

Ah! Look at all — the lo - nely peo - ple

Do Mim

The first system of the musical score for 'Eleanor Rigby'. It features a vocal line in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The lyrics are 'Ah! Look at all — the lo - nely peo - ple'. Below the vocal line is a piano accompaniment in grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with the same key signature and time signature. The piano part consists of chords in the right hand and a simple bass line in the left hand. The word 'Do' is written below the piano part in the first measure, and 'Mim' is written below it in the fifth measure.

E - lea - nor Rig - by, — picks up the rice in a church — where a wed - ding has been —

Do

The second system of the musical score. The vocal line begins with a measure rest marked with a '5' in a box, indicating a fifth measure rest. The lyrics are 'E - lea - nor Rig - by, — picks up the rice in a church — where a wed - ding has been —'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line. The word 'Do' is written below the piano part in the final measure of this system.

Lives in a dream ———— Waits at the win - dow, — wea - ring the face that she keeps.

Mim

The third system of the musical score. The vocal line begins with a measure rest marked with a '10' in a box, indicating a ten-measure rest. The lyrics are 'Lives in a dream ———— Waits at the win - dow, — wea - ring the face that she keeps.'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line. The word 'Mim' is written below the piano part in the first measure of this system.

Ah, look at all the lonely people (x2)

Eleanor Rigby picks up the rice in the church where a wedding has been
Lives in a dream
Waits at the window, wearing the face that she keeps in a jar by the door
Who is it for?

All the lonely people (chorus)
Where do they all come from ?
All the lonely people
Where do they all belong ?

Father McKenzie writing the words of a sermon that no one will hear
No one comes near.
Look at him working, Darning his socks in the night when there's nobody there
What does he care?

(chorus)

Eleanor Rigby died in the church and was buried along with her name
Nobody came
Father McKenzie wiping the dirt from his hands as he walks from the grave
No one was saved

(chorus)

Ah, regarde tous ces gens seuls (x2)

Eleanor Rigby ramasse le riz dans une église où un mariage s'est déroulé
Vit dans un rêve
Attend à la fenêtre, arborant le visage quelle conserve dans un pot, près de la porte
Pour qui est-ce?

Tous les gens seuls (refrain)
D'où viennent-ils tous?
Tous les gens seuls
Où est donc leur place?

Père McKenzie écrivant les mots d'un sermon que personne n'écouterait
Personne ne vient ici.
Regarde-le travailler. Raccourant ses chaussettes dans la nuit quand il n'y a personne ici
Qu'en a-t-il à faire?

(refrain)

Eleanor Rigby est morte à l'église et a été enterrée sous son nom
Personne n'est venu
Père McKenzie essuyant la poussière de ses mains en revenant de la sépulture
Personne n'a été épargné

(refrain)
